ALLERGENS MENU

We do our best to cater to different allergens and dietary requirements. This menu contains information on which of our dishes fall into different dietary groups according to the main allergens we are asked about. Please note that full allergy information can be found on each dish on our ordering portal.

Given that many allergens are handled in our kitchen, we cannot 100% guarantee against cross-contamination. Please contact us if you have specific requests.

GLUTEN FREE

Please note that our sushi comes with soy sauce as standard, which does include gluten. If you want GF soy, please state this in your order as a note.
